

Bethlehem Ketsela Moulat

JPO - Programme Officer

bmoulat@unicef.org

Short Biographical Sketch

Bethlehem Ketsela Moulat joined the IRC Social and Economic Policy unit in late 2010 as a JPO sponsored by the Italian Government.

She holds an MA in International Political Economy obtained in 2007 from the University of Warwick, UK. She currently assists research and programmatic activities focusing on child poverty and social protection issues in low and middle income countries. Previously she has worked with the ILO's Cooperatives branch in Geneva and also with UNIDO's Private Sector Development branch both in headquarters in Vienna and in the field, in Juba, focusing on youth and women entrepreneurship development projects.

Fields of Research

Child poverty and well-being

Social protection and social policies for children

Land-grabbing and its impacts on children

Languages

English, Italian, Spanish, Amharic

Current Publications

Social Monitor on social protection in CEE/CIS countries