

Susanna Nordh

Consultant, Child Protection Unit

snordh@unicef.org

Short Biographical Sketch

Susanna Nordh joined the Child Protection Unit at UNICEF IRC in 2009. Her research concentrates on the analysis of the legislation, policies, assistance, and other responses to child trafficking in the Nordic countries, with a focus on national child protection systems. She is also active in a number of research areas in child protection, including the exploitation and abuse of children through ICTs.

Prior to joining IRC, she worked for 2 years in Argentina, with the International Organization for Migration (IOM), Save the Children and a number of local NGOs, as well as in Sweden for Save the Children Sweden and the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (Sida). Susanna holds a Master's Degree in Public International Law and Human Rights from Lund University, Sweden.

Fields of Research

Child trafficking/Child migration

Child protection systems

Sexual abuse and exploitation of children through the Internet and other information and communication technologies

Languages

English, Spanish, Italian, Swedish

Current Publications

UNICEF Study on Child Trafficking in the Nordic Countries: Theory and Practice of a Child Rights Approach: Responses to Child Trafficking and How They Link to 'National Child Protection Systems'