

Sinovuyo Teen Parent Programme (Pilot 2014)
Guide for Focus Group Discussion with Facilitators
August 2015: Six Month Follow-up

Information and consent:

Thank you for agreeing to be a part of this focus group discussion. We appreciate your time in giving us insight into your experience of working with the Sinovuyo Parenting Programme. We are aware that you have been involved in the Randomised Control Trial. The work we're doing is more about the stories and networking that goes on in the programme. This interview won't take more than an hour. Your participation is voluntary and you are free to withdraw if you wish. This will not affect your involvement in Sinovuyo.

Because it is important for us to make sure we record and reproduce correctly the things you say here, we will record the discussion. Is this okay?

This discussion will help inform our research and publications relating to the qualitative evaluation of the Sinovuyo Parenting Programme. But we will ensure that any views you expressed here will remain confidential. Do we have your consent to proceed?

Yes?

No?

Do you have any questions?

If you have any further questions or complaints you can contact Dr Lucie Cluver (Lucie.Cluver@spi.ox.ac.uk) and/or Jasmina Byrne (jbyrne@unicef.org)

Introduction: Six months after we last interviewed you at the end of the Sinovuyo Teen programme, we want to talk to you today about whether/ how your experience with Sinovuyo has continued to impact your personal and professional life.

1. First section: Facilitator reflecting on their professional experience

- Do you use any of the Sino Teen role-plays, activities or discussions in your Isibindi work? If yes, please give us some examples.
- When you look back, what were some of the key learnings from your time as a Sino facilitator?
- Have you been able to incorporate any of the experience in your life? Tell us more.

2. Second section: Facilitator reflecting on the experience of their families

- Have you noticed any changes with the Sinovuyo families that you have continued to work with? If yes, please give us some examples.
- What do you think were some of the key learnings for the families? How do you see these?

3. Third section: Facilitators reflecting on their personal experience

- Have you been able to incorporate any of the experience in your life? Tell us more.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION!
