

Experts' workshop on gender-responsive age-sensitive social protection

UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti, Florence, Italy

Monday 6th May 2019

Description: A meeting hosted by UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti drawing expertise across academics, practitioners, donors, and multilaterals, working in the fields of gender and social protection

Objective: To share expertise and learnings from experts in the fields and to create linkages between evidence, policy and programming actors. This session will ultimately inform the conceptual framework for the DFID-funded programme on gender and social protection.

Outputs:

- (1) Identify where the evidence base is robust and where there are evidence gaps that need investments
- (2) Think piece compendium is agreed and venues for dissemination are identified.
- (3) Advisory capacity for the UNICEF Office of Research – Innocenti's GRASSP research programme going forward is established.
